The cemetery listed here as CARRETT was originally known as OAK HILL and occasionally referred to as LEATHERS. The name was changed from Oak Hill to Carrett approximately in the early 1920s due to a large donation given for its upkeep by one of the members of the Carrett family in appreciation of his gift.

DORMAN FAMILY--PAGE 16

Eleanor (Mrs. W) Dorman--formerly Eleanor Morgan--came to Iowa after her husband was killed in an accident in the early 1880s while they resided in Morgan County, Ind. near the Brooklyne and Waverly communities. She brought her young son Hiner to Ia. so they could be near an older son Jesse who was already here. She also had a daughter Elizabeth. The son Hiner served in the Civil War--married Martha Knox and died in Washington State. The daughter Elizabeth married Wm. Clary and was the mother of Jesse D. Clary and died in Washington State between 1910 and 1915 having gone there to be near her brother and reside near or with her son.

Jesse Dorman married Matilda Conduitt, (born Morgan County, Ind. and they had a son W. W. Dorman. W. W. Dorman married _____ Smitham when he died her father came back from Morgan County, Ind. and took the wife and two small children back to Ind. Another son was born a few months later and then the mother died also and is buried at Brooklyn, Morgan County, Ind. The three children were raised by members of Mrs. Dormans family.

Jesse Dorman's second wife was Elizabeth Davis, daughter of Ann and Peter Davis who are listed in this book. She had brothers Martin and James H. --James served in the Civil War. Jesse and Elizabeth Dorman were great grandparents of the donor of this information-- Mrs. Wm. Swisher.

THE HASTY FAMILY

Wm. Hasty's father was John Hasty, a soldier of the American Revolution who is buried in Ky. He served in the Virginia troops and was born in Ireland. He married Rebecca Murdock. Several DAR memberships have been granted on John Hasty. Their son Wm. was born in Culpepper Co., Va. and the Mary Hasty listed here was his wife--her maiden name was Carter and her nickname was Polly. The Hasty family spent some time in Morgan Co., Ind. enroute to Ia. Their children included Charles who settled in Washington Co., Ia where he and his wife and some of their family are buried in Richmond Cemetery, Richmond, Ia.. Another son was Joseph G. Hasty.

Joseph G. Hasty was the son of Wm. and Mary Hasty and married Jane Moody--a sister of Alexander Porter? Moody (1814-1908--listed on page 110 of Vol. 2). Their children were Ansel (listed in this book); Thomas, who along with his wife, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Colman, their daughter and her husband, Mayme and Frederick Wise and their son, Guy, are all buried in the King City Cemetery, King City, Mo.; Margaret (Mrs. Wm. Knox) page 110; Lavonia (Mrs. Dan) Evans who died in the early 1940's; Charles B. who married Ann Dorman, only dau. of Jesse and Elizabeth Dorman (page 46). Ann died Dec. 1941 and Charles in the late 1940s. Margaret and Wm. Knox and Lavonia and Dan Evans are buried in Garrett Cemetery, Washington township.

Charles B. and Ann Dorman Hasty are the parents of Verne, who died 19 and is buried in Pennington Cemetery near Sigourney, Ia.; Dorman, who died June 13, 1965 and is buried in Garrett Cemetery; Nola (Mrs. Jess) Hamilton, Barnes City, Ia.; and Amy (Mrs. Charles F.) Goodman, Des Moines, Washington. Amy's husband died in the late 1940s in Seattle Wash. and was a part of the Goodman family, page 66 of this book.

Charles B. and Ann Hasty are the grandparents and Dorman Hasty the father of the donor of this information--Mrs. Wm. A. Swisher.
